CIVIL COMPLAINT

CASE NO. 4:17-cv-00914

DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

COMPLAINT

NOW comes KEVIN M. MILLS (“Plaintiff”), by and through his attorneys, Sulaiman Law Group, Ltd. (“Sulaiman”), complaining as to the conduct of RECEIVABLES PERFORMANCE MANAGEMENT, LLC (“Defendant”), as follows:

NATURE OF THE ACTION

1. Plaintiff brings this action for damages pursuant to the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act (“FDCPA”) under 15 U.S.C. §1692 et seq., the Telephone Consumer Protection Act (“TCPA”) under 47 U.S.C. §227 et seq., and the Texas Debt Collection Act (“TDCA”) under Tex. Fin. Code Ann. § 392 et seq. for Defendant’s unlawful conduct.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

2. This action arises under and is brought pursuant to the FDCPA and TCPA. Subject matter jurisdiction is conferred upon this Court by 15 U.S.C §1692, 47 U.S.C §227, 28 U.S.C. §§1331 and 1337, as the action arises under the laws of the United States. Supplemental jurisdiction exists for the state law claim pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1367.

3. Venue is proper in this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1391 as Defendant conducts business in the Northern District of Texas and a substantial portion the events or omissions giving rise to the claims occurred within the Northern District of Texas.

PARTIES

4. Plaintiff is a 46 year-old natural person residing at 5613 Stafford Drive, Fort Worth, Texas, which falls within the Northern District of Texas.

5. Plaintiff is a “person” as defined by 47 U.S.C. §153(39).

6. Defendant is “a national leader in accounts receivable management.”¹ Defendant is a limited liability company organized under the laws of the state of Washington with its principal place of business located at 20816 44th Avenue West, Lynwood, Washington.

7. Defendant is a “person” as defined by 47 U.S.C. §153(39).

8. Defendant acted through its agents, employees, officers, members, directors, heirs, successors, assigns, principals, trustees, sureties, subrogees, representatives and insurers at all times relevant to the instant action.

FACTS SUPPORTING CAUSES OF ACTION

9. In the summer of 2017, Plaintiff began receiving calls to his cellular phone, (817) XXX-8722, from Defendant.

10. At all times relevant to the instant action, Plaintiff was the sole subscriber, owner, and operator of the cellular phone ending in 8772. Plaintiff is and always has been financially responsible for the cellular phone and its services.

11. Defendant has mainly used the phone number (425) 412-2539 when placing calls to Plaintiff’s cellular phone, but upon belief, it has other numbers as well.

12. Upon information and belief, the above referenced phone number ending in 2539 is regularly utilized by Defendant during its debt collection activity.

13. Upon answering calls from Defendant, Plaintiff has experienced a noticeable pause, lasting a handful of seconds in length, before a live representative begins to speak.

14. Plaintiff has never had any business relationship with Defendant nor has he ever given it permission to call his cellular Phone, so Plaintiff was confused as to why Defendant was contacting him.

15. Upon speaking with Defendant, Plaintiff is informed that it is acting as a debt collector attempting to collect upon a debt owed by a "Ms. Christina."

16. Plaintiff is not familiar with any individual by that name, and so informed Defendant that it was calling the wrong party and demanded that Defendant cease contacting him.

17. Plaintiff even returned several of Defendant's calls to further reiterate that it was calling the wrong party and that he wanted the calls to stop.

18. Despite Plaintiff's demands and the information provided to Defendant, Plaintiff has still received incessant phone calls from Defendant up until the filing of this complaint.

19. Defendant has called Plaintiff's cellular phone multiple times during the same day, even after being told to stop.

20. Plaintiff has received not less than 20 phone calls from Defendant since asking it to stop calling.

21. Frustrated over Defendant's conduct, Plaintiff spoke with Sulaiman regarding his rights, resulting in expenses.

22. Plaintiff has been unfairly and unnecessarily harassed by Defendant's actions.

23. With the goal of specifically addressing Defendant's conduct, Plaintiff has expended approximately $62.00 to purchase and maintain an application on his cellular phone to help quell Defendant's calls. However, the communications have continued.

24. Plaintiff has suffered concrete harm as a result of Defendant's actions, including but not limited to, invasion of privacy, aggravation that accompanies collection telephone calls intended for an unknown individual, emotional distress, increased risk of personal injury resulting from the distraction caused by the never-ending calls, increased usage of his telephone services, loss of cellular phone capacity, diminished cellular phone functionality, decreased battery life on his cellular phone, and diminished space for data storage on his cellular phone.

COUNT I – VIOLATIONS OF THE FAIR DEBT COLLECTION PRACTICES ACT

25. Plaintiff repeats and realleges paragraphs 1 through 24 as though full set forth herein.

26. Plaintiff is a "consumer" as defined by 15 U.S.C. §1692a(3) of the FDCPA.

27. Defendant is a "debt collector" as defined by §1692a(6) of the FDCPA, because it regularly use the mail and/or the telephone to collect, or attempt to collect, delinquent consumer accounts.

28. Defendant is engaged in the business of collecting or attempting to collect, directly or indirectly, defaulted debts owed or due or asserted to be owed or due to others. Defendant identifies itself as a debt collector and has been a member of the Association of Credit and Collection Professionals ("ACA") since 2002.²

29. The subject debt is a "debt" as defined by FDCPA §1692a(5) as it arises out of a transaction due or asserted to be due to another for personal, family, or household purposes

a. Violations of FDCPA §1692b & c(b)

² <http://www.acainternational.org/search#memberdirectory>

30. The FDCPA, pursuant to 15 U.S.C. §1692b, prohibits a debt collector from “communicating with any person other than the consumer for the purpose of acquiring location information about the consumer.” Additionally, under §1692b(3), a debt collector “shall not communicate with any such person more than once unless requested to do so by such person or unless the debt collector reasonably believes that the earlier response of such person is erroneous or incomplete and that such person now has correct or complete location information.” Furthermore, under §1692c(b), “without the prior consent of the consumer given directly to the debt collector...a debt collector may not communicate, in connection with the collection of any debt, with any person other than the consumer, his attorney, a consumer reporting agency...the attorney of the creditor, or the attorney of the debt collector.”

31. Defendant violated §1692b, b(3), and c(b) by contacting Plaintiff on a number of occasions seeking to collect upon a debt for a “Ms. Christina.” Plaintiff explicitly notified Defendant that he was not the individual it was looking for and demanded that it stop calling him. Defendant had more than enough information to know that the number it was calling did not belong to a “Ms. Christina,” especially since Plaintiff is a male and had advised Defendant that he is unfamiliar with an individual with that name. Armed with this information, Defendant still continued to call Plaintiff’s cellular phone multiple times without his consent.

b. Violations of FDCPA §1692c(a)(1) and §1692d

32. The FDCPA, pursuant to 15 U.S.C. §1692d, prohibits a debt collector from engaging “in any conduct the natural consequence of which is to harass, oppress, or abuse any person in connection with the collection of a debt.” §1692d(5) further prohibits, “causing a telephone to ring or engaging any person in telephone conversation repeatedly or continuously with intent to annoy, abuse, or harass any person at the called number.”

33. Defendant violated §1692c(a)(1), d, and d(5) when it continuously called Plaintiff after being notified to stop and that Plaintiff was not the underlying debtor. Defendant called Plaintiff at least 20 times after he demanded that it stop and after becoming aware that Plaintiff was not the party it was seeking. This repeated behavior of systematically calling Plaintiff's phone in spite of his demands was harassing and abusive. The frequency and volume of calls shows that Defendant willfully ignored Plaintiff's pleas with the goal of annoying and harassing him.

34. Defendant was notified by Plaintiff that its calls were not welcomed. Plaintiff went so far as to return several of Defendant's phone calls to reiterate his demand that the contacts cease, yet these demands went unacknowledged. As such, Defendant knew that its conduct was inconvenient and harassing to Plaintiff.

c. Violations of FDCPA § 1692e

35. The FDCPA, pursuant to 15 U.S.C. §1692e, prohibits a debt collector from using "any false, deceptive, or misleading representation or means in connection with the collection of any debt."

36. In addition, this section enumerates specific violations, such as:

"The use of any false representation or deceptive means to collect or attempt to collect any debt or to obtain information concerning a consumer." 15 U.S.C. §1692e(10).

37. Defendant violated §1692e and e(10) when it used deceptive means to collect and/or attempt to collect the subject debt. Defendant repeatedly contacted the wrong party seeking to collect upon a debt, and was even notified by Plaintiff that it was calling the wrong person and to stop calling. Nevertheless, Defendant called Plaintiff at least 20 times in a deceptive attempt to force him to answer its calls and ultimately make a payment, even though the debt was not his. Through its conduct, Defendant misleadingly represented to Plaintiff that it had the legal ability to contact him via an automated system when, not only did not have consent in the first place, but it was also subsequently told to stop calling.

d. Violations of FDCPA § 1692f

38. The FDCPA, pursuant to 15 U.S.C. §1692f, prohibits a debt collector from using “unfair or unconscionable means to collect or attempt to collect any debt.”

39. Defendant violated §1692f when it unfairly and unconscionably attempted to collect on a debt by continuously calling Plaintiff over 20 times and asking to speak with an individual who was not Plaintiff. Defendant repeatedly asked to speak with an individual with whom Plaintiff is unfamiliar. Attempting to coerce Plaintiff into payment by placing voluminous phone calls after becoming privy to the fact that it is contacting the wrong person and being told to stop calling is unfair and unconscionable behavior. These means employed by Defendant only served to worry and confuse Plaintiff.

40. As pled in paragraphs 20 through 24, Plaintiff has been harmed and suffered damages as a result of Defendant’s illegal actions.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, KEVIN M. MILLS, respectfully requests that this Honorable Court enter judgment in his favor as follows:

- a. Declaring that the practices complained of herein are unlawful and violate the aforementioned bodies of law;
- b. Awarding Plaintiff statutory damages of $1,000.00 as provided under 15 U.S.C. §1692k(a)(2)(A);
- c. Awarding Plaintiff actual damages, in an amount to be determined at trial, as provided under 15 U.S.C. §1692k(a)(1);
- d. Awarding Plaintiff costs and reasonable attorney fees as provided under 15 U.S.C. §1692k(a)(3); and
- e. Awarding any other relief as this Honorable Court deems just and appropriate.

COUNT II – VIOLATIONS OF THE TELEPHONE CONSUMER PROTECTION ACT

41. Plaintiff repeats and realleges paragraphs 1 through 40 as though fully set forth herein.

42. The TCPA, pursuant to 47 U.S.C. § 227(b)(1)(iii), prohibits calling persons on their cellular phone using an automatic telephone dialing system (“ATDS”) without their consent. The TCPA, under 47 U.S.C. § 227(a)(1), defines an ATDS as “equipment which has the capacity...to store or produce telephone numbers to be called, using a random or sequential number generator; and to dial such numbers.”

43. Defendant used an ATDS in connection with its communications directed towards Plaintiff’s cellular phone. The noticeable pause, lasting a handful of seconds in length, that Plaintiff experiences during answered calls from Defendant is instructive that an ATDS is being utilized to generate the phone calls. Additionally, the nature and frequency of Defendant’s contacts points to the involvement of an ATDS.

44. Defendant violated the TCPA by placing at least 20 phone calls to Plaintiff’s cellular phone using an ATDS without his consent. Plaintiff has never had any business relationship with Defendant nor has he given it permission to call his cellular phone. Defendant was calling Plaintiff’s cellular phone looking for a different party whom Plaintiff is unfamiliar with. As such, Plaintiff could not have given Defendant consent to contact him. Even if Defendant did have a legitimate business reason for initially contacting Plaintiff, which it did not, he explicitly revoked any consent by his demands to cease contact.

45. The calls placed by Defendant to Plaintiff were regarding collection activity and not for emergency purposes as defined by the TCPA under 47 U.S.C. §227(b)(1)(A)(i).

46. Under the TCPA, pursuant to 47 U.S.C. § 227(b)(3)(B), Defendant is liable to Plaintiff for at least $500.00 per call. Moreover, Defendant’s willful and knowing violations of the TCPA should trigger this Honorable Court's ability to triple the damages to which Plaintiff is otherwise entitled to under 47 U.S.C. § 227(b)(3)(C). Defendant's willful conduct is exemplified by its persistent calling of Plaintiff's cellular phone despite knowing that the phone number does not belong to the individual whom Defendant is attempting to collect upon.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, KEVIN M. MILLS, respectfully requests that this Honorable Court enter judgment in his favor as follows:

- a. Declaring that the practices complained of herein are unlawful and violate the aforementioned statutes and regulations;
- b. Awarding Plaintiff damages of at least $500.00 per phone call and treble damages pursuant to 47 U.S.C. §§ 227(b)(3)(B)&(C);
- c. Awarding Plaintiff costs and reasonable attorney fees; and
- d. Awarding any other relief as this Honorable Court deems just and appropriate.

COUNT III – VIOLATIONS OF THE TEXAS DEBT COLLECTION ACT

47. Plaintiff restates and realleges paragraphs 1 through 46 as though fully set forth herein.

48. Plaintiff is a "consumer" as defined by Tex. Fin. Code Ann. § 392.001(1).

49. Defendant is a "debt collector" and a "third party debt collector" as defined by Tex. Fin. Code Ann. § 392.001(6) and (7).

50. The subject debt is a "consumer debt" as defined by Tex. Fin. Code Ann. § 392.001(2) as it is an obligation, or alleged obligation, arising from a transaction for personal, family, or household purposes.

a. Violations of TDCA § 392.302

51. The TDCA, pursuant to Tex. Fin. Code Ann. § 392.302(4), states that "a debt collector may not oppress, harass, or abuse a person by causing a telephone to ring repeatedly or continuously, or making repeated or continuous telephone calls, with the intent to harass a person at the called number.”

52. Defendant violated the TDCA when it continued to call Plaintiff’s cellular phone at least 20 times after he notified it to stop calling and after having notice that Plaintiff was not the purported debtor. This repeated behavior of systematically calling Plaintiff’s phone in spite of his demands was harassing and abusive. Further, the nature and volume of phone calls, including multiple calls during the same day, would naturally cause an individual to feel oppressed.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, KEVIN M. MILLS, respectfully requests that this Honorable Court enter judgment in his favor as follows:

- a. Declaring that the practices complained of herein are unlawful and violate the aforementioned statutes and regulations;
- b. Entitling Plaintiff to injunctive relief pursuant to Tex. Fin. Code Ann. § 392.403(a)(1).
- c. Awarding Plaintiff actual damages, pursuant to Tex. Fin. Code Ann. § 392.403(a)(2).
- d. Awarding Plaintiff punitive damages, in an amount to be determined at trial, for the underlying violations;
- e. Awarding Plaintiff costs and reasonable attorney fees, pursuant to Tex. Fin. Code Ann. § 392.403(b);
- f. Awarding any other relief as this Honorable Court deems just and appropriate.
